ATTACHMENT I

1. On November 26, 2014, Customs and Border Protection's air wing (OMAHA 21) observed and followed a suspicious vehicle from the Rio Grande River to 1052 River Bend, Rio Grande City, Texas. Two subjects were observed carrying back packs into the property. A consensual search at the residence, conducted by Texas Department of Public Safety criminal investigators and Rio Grande, Texas Border Patrol agents resulted in the apprehension of Orlando Roberto RODRIGUEZ-Reyes. RODRIGUEZ-Reyes was taken to the Rio Grande City, Texas Border Patrol station for processing. During intake processing, RODRIGUEZ-Reyes identified himself by his alias, COMANDANTE BORIS, and acknowledged entering the United States illegally, without inspection, through the Rio Grande River on November 26, 2014.
2. Investigators with Starr County HIDTA responded to the Rio Grande City, Texas Border Patrol station and interviewed RODRIGUEZ-Reyes. Under rights advisement and waiver, RODRIGUEZ-Reyes stated that he had approximately $100,000.00 in United States currency (USC) hidden at his residence. Starr County HIDTA investigators obtained written consent from RODRIGUEZ-Reyes to search his home and seized approximately $187,709.00 USC inside a hidden compartment within the residence.
3. On November 28, 2014, Starr County HIDTA investigators re-interviewed RODRIGUEZ-Reyes, under rights advisement and waiver RODRIGUEZ-Reyes stated the following. RODRIGUEZ-Reyes stated that the money was derived illegally, from drug proceeds, which were paid to him in Mexico by members of the Gulf Cartel drug trafficking organization (DTO). RODRIGUEZ-Reyes stated that he was employed as a "sicario" (hit man) and tasked with securing his area of responsibility from members of Los Zetas DTO. RODRIGUEZ-Reyes stated that he was paid, in Mexico, a salary of $800.00 USC, every 15 days, but would also receive thousands of dollars from Gulf Cartel leaders following successful drug trafficking operations. RODRIGUEZ-Reyes stated that the currency, seized by Starr County HIDTA investigators, was money he had brought from Mexico that RODRIGUEZ-Reyes had saved while working for the Gulf Cartel DTO.
4. Agents believe that the money was smuggled into the United States from Mexico in order to avoid reporting requirements, as well as to conceal the nature, source, location, ownership, and control with intent to promote a specified unlawful activity. RODRIGUEZ-Reyes did not indicate to Starr County HIDTA investigators how he "brought" the money into the United States in violation of United States reporting requirements. RODRIGUEZ-Reyes concealed the money within a hidden compartment and admitted that the money was obtained illegally as part of his position within the Gulf Cartel as a hit man, as well securing area from rival drug trade organizations and promoting drug trafficking operations.
